

Devo's Super 7

Monday- (I Kings 18:22) How many prophets did Baal use? How many did God use? _____
Parent's X _____

Tuesday- (I Kings 18:24) How did they agree who would be the one true God? _____
Parent's X _____

Wednesday- (I Kings 18:25-26) What happened when the prophets of Baal called upon their gods? _____
Parent's X _____

Thursday- (I Kings 18:27) What did Elijah have to say about their gods? _____
Parent's X _____

Friday- (I Kings 18:37-38) What happened when Elijah called upon God? _____
Parent's X _____

Saturday- (I Kings 18:21a) Memorize it.
Parent's X _____

Sunday- (I Kings 18:39) What did the people do when they saw what God had done? _____
Parent's X _____

Maximum Impact PASSPORT To Sunday School Adventure

I Kings Week Four "The Choice"

"That was a really great game, Max!" Dad shouted as Max was coming off the field after the last inning.

"Yeah, Max, you were awesome! I can't believe you made those two outs at the end like that." Maxine said.

"That was pretty cool, huh? If we hadn't stopped them, they would have come back and beat us," Max realized.

"Hey Max," Dad said as he tossed him a bottle of water, "It looks like your coach wants you over at the bench."

Max ran over to the bench to see what the coach was telling the team.

"Way to go guys!" the coach said "You played like a real team out there today. Our hitting was top notch. Infielders, you really executed. Max, those were two awesome catches."

The team all cheered and hooted to the coaches remarks.

"I have a special announcement to make," the coach continued, "Because we won this game today, we are the top team in the league." Everyone jumped up and cheered and Max threw his ball cap into the air. "Now hold on guys," the coach said, "That's not the best news. Because we're the top team, we get to play in the first game of the Tri-county tournament this weekend."

The whole team was jumping up and down, cheering, laughing, and giving each other high-fives. Devo even ran into the group, jumping and barking with excitement.

“Ok, team,” the coach said, “We’ll have practice as usual on Friday, and a special practice on Saturday morning because the first game of the tournament is Sunday at 12:00. You guys did great today. I’m proud of every one of you. Now go home, get some rest, have some fun, and I’ll see you at practice on Friday!”

As the boys ran off the field, they were excitedly talking about the tournament and what they would do when they won the tournament.

“You guys are awfully excited,” Dad said, “What did your coach say to you?”

“Dad,” Max said, “You won’t believe it! We beat the Scorpions and that makes us the top rated team in the league! We’re in the Tri-county tournament! We get to play in the first game and everything! That is just so awesome!”

“Way to go Max!” Maxine cheered, “Your team has been trying all season to beat the Scorpions. Keep making catches like that and I’m sure you’ll win this tournament.”

“Wow, Max. That tournament is this weekend. When does the first game start?” Dad asked.

“Sunday, at twelve o’clock. I can’t wait.” Max said, and then got a sudden sour feeling in his stomach.

Maxine's Bible Quest

Between Two Opinions

- What do you think it means to “halt between two opinions?”
- What two opinions did they have to decide between?
- What is the difference between God and a god?

The LORD Be God

- Who should you serve?
- Why should you serve Him?
- Name something that people can serve instead of God.

KJ's Verse of the Week:

I Kings 18:21a “And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? If the LORD be God, follow Him: but if Baal, then follow him.”